

Wisconsin LLC Formation Checklist

Step 1: Name Your Wisconsin LLC

The name of your Wisconsin LLC should be distinguishable from other business names in your state and must meet the Wisconsin naming guidelines.

How to Complete This Step:

Review Wisconsin's naming guidelines

- Your name must contain the phrase "limited liability company" or "limited liability co." or end with one of their abbreviations (LLC or L.L.C.).
- Your name cannot imply that the LLC was organized for any non-permitted purpose.
- Your name cannot include words that could confuse your LLC with a government agency (FBI, Treasury, State Department, etc.).
- In some states, certain restricted words (Bank, Attorney, University, etc.) may require additional paperwork and a licensed individual to be part of your LLC.
- Your name must be distinguishable from any existing business in the state. This includes Wisconsin reserved names.

Check if the web domain is available

Make sure the name you want isn't already taken by doing a corporate records search on the Department of Financial Institutions website.

Step 2: Choose a Registered Agent

A registered agent is the person or company you choose to accept official communication on behalf of your LLC.

Your registered agent must be:

- 18 years or older
- A resident of Wisconsin
- Available at all times during normal business hours (i.e., 9 a.m.–5 p.m. Monday through Friday) at their listed physical address (no P.O. boxes)

Many businesses choose to use a registered agent service for convenience and privacy.

Step 3: File Your Articles of Organization

The Articles of Organization is the paperwork required to register your LLC. This document is filed with the Department of Financial Institutions either online or by mail.

You will need to provide the following information:

- Name of the LLC (Step 1)
- Name and address of the registered agent (Step 2)
- Management structure (member-managed or manager-managed)
- Names and addresses of the organizers

A member-managed LLC structure is when the members of the LLC are involved with the management of the LLC. A manager-managed LLC is when a few assigned individuals are responsible for managing the LLC.

Step 4: Create an Operating Agreement

An operating agreement lays out the rules and management structure of your LLC.

Your operating agreement doesn't need to be filed with the state. You'll keep it in your LLC records file and return to it as needed to clarify rules and settle disputes.

Step 5: Get an EIN

An Employer Identification Number (EIN) is like a Social Security number for your business. EINs are free and easy to get from the IRS using Form SS-4 or by filling out the online application.
